

Zentrale Universitätsverwaltung
Abteilung 3 - Personal

751/2019

Halle (Saale), 17.06.2019

External Job Announcement
Appointment Scheme Number: 4-2113/19-H

The Seminar for Jewish Studies of the Oriental Studies Institute at the Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg (Department of Arts, Oriental and Ancient Studies) is looking for a research associate for a doctoral position, starting immediately, for a limited period of 3 years.

This is a part-time job (50%).

Compensation will be paid after the transfer of the function and after all personal requirements for the pay category 13 TV-L have been met.

Requirements:

- Above-average university degree (MA) in the field of Jewish Studies or another field of Oriental Studies
- Willingness to work on a research topic in the area of Sephardic Judaism in the Middle Ages or modern Near/Middle East
- Knowledge of rabbinic Judaism and familiarity with methods from the cultural studies
- Excellent knowledge of Hebrew (Arabic and modern Hebrew desirable) and proficiency in spoken and written English
- Capacity for teamwork

Tasks:

- Research and teaching support in the field of Jewish Studies with a focus on Sephardic Judaism in the Middle Ages and the modern era
- Support in the acquisition of third-party funding
- Scientific organization
- This job includes the possibility of a doctorate

Applicants with severe disabilities who are equally qualified will be given preferential treatment. Women are encouraged to apply.

For further questions please contact Prof. Dr. Ottfried Fraise at ottfried.fraise@judaistik.uni-halle.de

Applications with all relevant documents should be submitted by July 19, 2019 under Reg.- Nr. 4-2113/19-H and in electronic form to Prof. Fraise, as well as in paper form to: Martin- Luther-Universität Halle-Wittenberg, Philosophische Fakultät I, Institut für Orientalistik, Seminar für Judaistik / Jüdische Studien, Prof. Dr. Ottfried Fraise, 06099 Halle (Saale).

This position is subject to potential budgetary constraints.

Application costs will not be reimbursed. Application documents will only be returned if a sufficiently stamped return envelope has been provided.